Focus on MSCI GCC Countries Combined Index

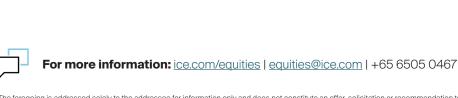

The MSCI GCC Countries Combined Index is a comprehensive benchmark for equity markets across the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) region. The index tracks 91 constituents that reflects the region's economic strength and evolving capital markets.

Historically, the Index has exhibited lower volatility than broader emerging markets, supported by stable currencies, support from regional sovereign wealth funds and strategic government initiatives. Its resilience during global uncertainty make it an attractive option for investors seeking regional exposure.
